

Killyleagh artist is honoured

KILLYLEAGH artist, Deepa Mann-Kler, has been honoured with an invitation to exhibit her work in Shanghai.

In association with the Irish Consulate in Shanghai and Culture Ireland, as part of the exhibition Drawing Eire, her work went on display on March 7 during Ireland Week in Shanghai. Mr. Connor O Riordan, the Consul General of Ireland, was in attendance.

Drawing Eire will then tour Beijing and Hangzhou, finishing in July.
