

Councillor Eddie Rea (left) launched the Best of Killyleagh art exhibition at Killyleagh Library on Friday. The exhibition, which took place last weekend, celebrated the work of Killyleagh artists. Included with Ann Fee, Branch Library manager (second from left) are artists Wendy Cromie (centre) Deepa Mann-Kler, Leo Casement and Alan Beers (right). Missing from the photograph is Brian Owens.

Artists combine for unique Killyleagh exhibition

A SPECIAL exhibition of the best of Killyleagh art was held in the town over the weekend.

It was timed to coincide with the Magnus Barelegs Viking Festival.

Former Down Council chairman, Eddie Rea, performed the opening ceremony at the town's library on Friday morning.

Mr. Rea said Killyleagh has so many attributes which makes it an attractive place to live and work. He outlined a number of projects which are being worked on by Killyleagh Development Association and the Killyleagh Social Partnership.

The exhibition featured the work of local artists Leo Casement, Alan Beers, Deepa Mann-Kler, Wendy Cromie and Brian Owens.